Groundskeeper's Song

wisdom of /birds in the /morning s/qwarking the /truth but I /know not the /language scare-crow / old clown / frighten 'em / softly off - / my mind / needs relief (This bit 'My mind need relief' works nicely as 'pastures and green sky') tall weeds /silently /mock me yet /ritual / brings me some / small peace

These are the/ last days,/ the worst/ of times/: let us/ keep watch

rejoice because there is no thing left on a morrowless day house haunted / young ghouls / party hard /

Haunted a/partment of/resonant/things I no/longer re/member night time / when weeds / grow tall / when the day / resets it/self again

last days /hours pass/ weeds grow / birds cry
